

Who is RADACT?

The Regional Alcohol and other Drug Abuse Counselor Training (RADACT) Program is a non-profit organization dedicated to providing training opportunities to individuals who are seeking quality education in the Behavioral Health field.

This Alaska-based organization offers training opportunities that are approved and accepted by both the National Association of Alcoholism and Drug Abuse Counselors (NAADAC) and the Alaska Commission for Behavioral Health Certification (ACBHC).

RADACT

3901 Old Seward Hwy., Suite 8
Anchorage, AK 99503

Phone: 907-563-9202

Fax: 907-562-7948

www.radact.com

RADACT offers

Distance Learning Courses

New fees took effect
February 1, 2011

NAADAC Approved Courses

RADACT Correspondence Courses

Ethics for Beginners - 6 Hours

This course will assist students in understanding the ethical obligations of a professional in relation to the NAADAC Code of Ethics. It is an entry level course.

Ethics for Recertification - 4 Hours

This course is for students needing a refresher for re-certification

Motivational Interviewing - 16 Hours

This course focuses on the principles of motivational interviewing and the Stages of Change model developed by DiClemente and Prochaska.

Infectious Diseases and HIV/AIDS - 8 Hours

This course focuses on hepatitis, sexually transmitted diseases, TB, HIV, and other infectious diseases that might impact clients receiving services.

Confidentiality - 6 Hours

This course will provide an overview of the Federal confidentiality regulations (42 CFR Part 2 and the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996 (HIPAA), 45 CFR Parts 160 and 164 and the implications for behavioral health programs.

Psycho-Physiology - 16 hours

This course will provide information about the brain-body connection, the nervous system structure, neuro-anatomy, neurotransmitter and receptor function. The course will also discuss various drugs and their effects.

Correspondence courses are now available in CD format and in hard-copy.

Alaska History of Chemical Dependency - 6 Hours

This course provides an overview of both the history of Alaska and the introduction, use, and control of alcohol and other drugs from the time of first contact by Vitus Bering in 1742.

Introduction to Addictive Behavior - 16 Hours

This course provides an overview of the problems and consequences of substance abuse, and the importance and effectiveness of assessment procedures.

Substance Abuse Treatment for Persons with HIV/AIDS - 10 Hours

This course provides information on HIV/AIDS, such as how it is spread, prevention, treatment, and counseling people with HIV and Substance Abuse Disorders.

Working with Diverse Populations - 16 Hours

This course discusses ethnicity, immigrants and refugees, women, disabilities, older adults, sexual orientation, adolescents, homeless populations and comorbidity of alcohol and psychiatric problem

Introduction to Group Counseling - 8 Hours

This course focuses on five group models that are common in substance abuse treatment, and group leadership.

You will need to download the information from the CD as it is not an interactive CD.

ORDER FORM

Circle choice of CD or hardcopy

Course requested	Hours	Price CD	Price Hard-copy
Alaska History of Chemical Dependency	6	$45	$60
Confidentiality	6	$45	$60
Ethics, Beginning	6	$45	$60
Ethics for Recertification	4	$30	$40
Infectious Diseases and HIV/AIDS	8	$60	$80
Introduction to Addictive Behavior	16	$120	$160
Introduction to Group Counseling	8	$60	$80
Motivational Interviewing	16	$120	$160
Psycho-Physiology	16	$120	$160
Substance Abuse Treatment for Persons with HIV/AIDS	10	$75	$100
Working with diverse Populations	16	$120	$160

SHIPPING & HANDLING IS $6 PER COURSE

Subtotal _____
Shipping & Handling _____
 Total: _____

Student Name _____

Address _____

Phone _____

Mail form with check or money order payable to RADACT:

RADACT
 3901 Old Seward Hwy., Suite 8
 Anchorage, AK 99503